A' gabhail seilbh Taking ownership

Nuair ghabh Urras Chroitearan Asannta seilbh air Oighreachd Loch an Inbhir a Tuath anns an Dùbhlachd 1992 cha robh fada mus do lean dèidh an an seilbhachadh fearainn. Anns an 1997 dh'fhearr Riaghaltas na h-Alba air iomairt na Gàidhealtachd 's nan Eilean Ionad Fearainn Comhairleachd a shuidheachadh gus taic a thoirt do bhuidhnean amasan seilbhachadh fearainn a thoirt gu buil. Leis an taic seo bho iomairt phoblach, thòisich slugh Oighreachd Ghabhainn air Urras bunasach a chur air bhonn anns an t-Sultain 2004.

The acquisition of North Lochinver Estate by the Asynt Crofters' Trust in December 1992 lit the touchpaper for community land ownership. In 1997, Scottish Government instructed Highlands and Islands Enterprise to establish a Community Land Unit to assist community groups to progress land ownership ambitions. Using this public-sector support, residents within the Galson Estate proceeded to form a prospective landowning trust in September 2004.
